First 30 years it was Congress, then BJP; time for change: Kejriwal at Dediapada rally

EXPRESSNEWSERVICE
AHMEDABAD, JULY 24

"Samay ka chakra ghoomta hai...pehla tees saal Congress, phir tees saal BJP. Ab BJP ke jaane ka time aa gaya..." (The wheel of time turns...first 30 years of Congress, then 30 years of BJP. Now the time has come for BJP to go)," AAP convener and former Delhi CM Arvind Kejriwal trained his guns at the two national parties while addressing a rally along with Punjab CM Bhagwant Mann, in support of party's arrested Dediapada MLA Chaitar Vasava.

Vasava was arrested on July 5 in an alleged attempted murder case after a brawl with Dediapada taluka BJP president Sanjay Vasava during a meeting at the Dediapada Prant office.

Criticising both the BJP and the Congress, Kejriwal and Mann termed party leader Gopal Italia's recent victory from Visavadar as "a positive sign" for the AAP in the upcoming elections.

Mann said, "Aam public hai, chuprahe toh paanch saal, seene pe pathar rakh le dus saal, aankhein

AAP convener Arvind Kejriwal with the wives of jailed MLA Chaitar Vasava and others on Thursday. Bhupendra Rana band kar le pandrah saal, jeeb ko taala laga le pachees saal, kuch bina bole tees saal... par tees saal ke baad jab janta jaagti hai toh tees saal ka hisaab tees minute me le leti hai (The common public remained silent for five years, endured for 10 years, shut their eyes for 15 years, locked their pockets for 25 years, didn't say anything for 30 years...but after 30 years when the public awakens... they will ask for accountability in 30 minutes).

"In 2022, an Adivasi man, Chaitar Vasava, fought the elections. He is an educated member of the tribal community and an honest man... so you made him your MLA. Since Vasava has become an MLA, he has raised the issues of the public...He saw that the government money sent for school, hospitals and roads were going into these people's pockets. One small neta of theirs becomes MLA and from cycle he has now 10 big cars... from a small house, he has a palace, from where? From stealing your money. Chaitar began exposing their secrets," said Kejriwal.

He added, "The BJP government got scared that if Chaitar keeps speaking up for the Adivasis, they won't vote for them. Chaitar looked into the MGN-REGA scheme, where you get a minimum wage for 100 days. Who goes to work for minimum wage? The poorest of the poor. BJP people are so bad and selfish, that they even stole that money. Chaitar exposed corruption in MGNREGA first in the Vidhan Sabha, then in front of the media and then on the roads".

"The minister didn't resign but both his sons went to jail," he said while taking a dig at Gujarat minister Bachu Khabad.

Vasava's wives, Varsha and Shakuntala, were also present at the gathering and the former read a message from the jailed MLA to his constituents, who in turn, raised the slogan "jail ke tale tutenge, Chaitar Vasava chhootenge" (The jail locks will break, Chaitar Vasava will be free).

Varsha read Vasava's message saying, "After becoming MLA, I haven't stayed at home for a single day. My people have faced injustice by the government and I have fought against that, and so the government has put me in jail. The truth is that where the meeting was held, no such incident took place. It is a made up story and the police made the CCTV footage disappear...they are trying to implicate me...the police are working with the government."

Varsha further read out, "The Rs 2,500 crore MGNREGA scam was done by Bachhu Khabad and his sons are out on bail and the one who exposed them is in jail. Isn't this a political conspiracy? If anything happens to me or my family, the police will be responsible."

Kejriwal added: "They keep sending AAP leaders to jail. They kept me in jail for a year. They put Manish Sisodia, Satyendar Jain, Sanjay Singh in jail. They thought we would get scared, that this would break our party but our party became stronger...they will send Gopal Italia and Isudan Gadhvi to jail as well."

BJP, Congress hit back

BJP spokesperson Yagnesh Dave, meanwhile, said, "If the police have filed false cases (against Vasava) then they can accuse the police but the police are doing their job well. In any case, if they feel aggrieved, they can always go to court. Why didn't Chaitar Vasava go to court? Gopal Italia said that if he did hit the glass, at least he isn't dead. My question is, should we wait for someone to die? If I hit Italia with a glass, will he not file a case against me? The fact that they haven't approached the court shows that the police are right. They are just trying to mislead the public."

About the MGNREGA cases against Minister Khabad's son, Dave said, "Both of his sons are adults and the government has taken legal action against them. It's not that they have been protected...And if Bachubhai Khabad has done something wrong, then the party will take a call."

Hitting out at Kejriwal, Gujarat Congress spokesperson Dr Manish Doshi said, "His habit of lying is still going on. Whether it is Delhi, Haryana or Punjab, or (during) Gujarat 2022 elections, if you see any poll results, it is clear they have helped the BJP...Kejriwal is working to damage the Congress and help the BJP win."

Bank employee held for 'false address verification' in Rs 4.65 cr cybercrime

Ahmedabad: A private bank employee in Amreli district has been arrested for allegedly conducting a false physical address verification of a bank account that was subsequently used in the transaction of Rs 4.65 crore worth of illegal proceeds of crime, said police on Thursday.

The State Cybercrime Cell of CID identified the accused as Sumit Parsotam Savalia.

In a statement issued on Thursday, the State Cybercrime Cell stated, "A bank account was opened in the name of Shiv Corporation in a private bank in Amreli. Investigation into this account found illegal transactions of Rs 4.65 crore, so a police team was sent to Amreli for investigation."

The police statement stated, "During probe, one Mayur Khodidas Cholera was found using this account. He was receiving a commission for transferring the illegal proceeds of cyber fraud."

Cholera was subsequently arrested, said the police.

During investigation, the Shiv Corporation was found to be situated at Hudco Society in Amreli's Savarkundla taluka, said the police. This address was given to the bank at the time of opening the account. However, when the police reached the address, they found no such firm at the address, said the officials. Instead, they found Shiv Corporation to be located at APMC Market. "Notably, during the police verification of the information provided by the bank, a photograph of the firm with a closed shutter was attached to it. On questioning the owner of the firm, Deepak Kumar Dhirajal Mashru, it was found that the said photograph was taken in his absence," said the police.

During further probe, many errors were found in the verification of this bank account, said the police. On checking with the bank in Amreli, the police said it found that relationship manager Savalia had carried out the verification of Shiv Corporation while opening the bank account.

"During Savalia's questioning, it was found that he had carried out the verification of a firm with a similar name, approximately 2 km from the address mentioned in the bank details. This was done to open the bank account in an illegal manner, regarding which legal action has been taken against the accused," said the statement. ENS
